

Rolling Ridge Conservancy
2023 Board of Trustees

Kristen Saacke-Blunk

Kristen is an environmental professional; working as a water quality and habitat assessment, monitoring and restoration field liaison with Headwaters, LLC. She lives at the Study Retreat Associates at Rolling Ridge.

John Flower

John is Director of the Sidwell Friends School Chinese Study Program. He brought the China Folk House from China to West Virginia and oversees the programs there; including Camp Wholesome which brings students to work on the China Folk House, learn Mandarin, and engage in environmental stewardship.

Rob Glenn

Rob is a real estate attorney who lives in nearby Shepherdstown WV. He was the former president of the Jefferson County Farmland Protection Board. Rob is an avid hiker and has been instrumental in RRC's most recent acquisition of an additional 100 acres of land.

David Hunter

David loves being outdoors in forests and natural settings and working with young people. He currently works for Baltimore Yearly Meetings Quaker summer camping programs as the camp property manager where he coordinates the management of nearly 1000 acres of primarily forested land in Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia. He has also worked as a camp director and school teacher. He is passionate about preserving forests and offering young people opportunities to understand the importance of forested land and sustainable land use.

Jackie Kosbob

Jackie is a retired teacher from Loudoun County. She has been a member of Baltimore Yearly Meeting for forty-five years and attends Goose Creek Meeting in Lincoln, VA. She has been associated with the BYM camping program for many years in various capacities. She is very much looking forward to having Opequon Quaker camp located within the RRC and becoming a part of that community.

Gene Lewis

Gene is Director of Facilities for the Cool Spring River Campus of Shenandoah University. He enjoys hiking, backpacking and other outdoor activities.

Rolling Ridge Conservancy 2023 Board of Trustees

Rich Liversidge

Rich is Clerk of the Trustees of BYM. During his initial years in the DMV region, he was a government finance specialist structuring federal assistance packages to help develop major energy and other projects, often with their bankers. Subsequently, on behalf of a non-profit housing foundation he syndicated over 100 equity investments nationwide in projects using low-income housing tax credits. In Philadelphia, before moving to the DMV, he was a commercial banker, consulted on project financing with a black-owned economic development non-profit, and established and directed a regional bank's Corporate Responsibility Department. He studied Public Finance at the Wharton Graduate School.

Martha Mason Semmes - Secretary

Martha is a retired Town Manager for Middleburg VA and has worked in lands use and environmental management. She is a Fellow of the American Institute of Certified Planners. She enjoys hiking and the outdoors as often as possible.

Christian Mollitor - Chair

Christian is a technology consultant working with the U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission and a real estate agent with Long & Foster's Leesburg VA office. He previously worked as an international maritime and environmental lawyer; and served on the boards of Reef Relief based in Key West and the North American Marine Environment Protection Association. He enjoys yoga, hiking with his dog, and bicycling.

Patrick Shunney

The owner of Shunney Timberworks, Patrick is a timber framer, using centuries-old joinery techniques and sustainable materials. In his free time, he enjoys trail running and hiking.

Jack Smalligan

Jack is a Senior Policy Fellow at the Urban Institute. He previously served as Deputy Assistant Director for Education, Income and Labor at the Office of Management and Budget. He has been active with Rolling Ridge Study Retreat Associates. In his free time, he enjoys gardening, hiking, biking and kayaking.

Ann Stone - Treasurer

Ann is a retired Clinical Psychologist who has worked at George Washington University Medical School, American University and private practice. She grew up in WV and serves on the Friends Wilderness Board as well. She enjoys gardening, hiking and dogs and cats.
